

Government Cracking Down On Crime – Aply Assisted by the Hospitality Industry

St Johns Bar and Restaurant are holding a Murder Mystery night with a difference. Their Culinary Crime Crawl will also test their diners ability to solve a cryptic puzzle, unravel an anagram and put a murderer behind bars.

The evening begins at Trinity Hotel with canapés and cocktails where guests are introduced to their fellow diners, 6 of whom will become suspects in a murder.

Together they will wend their way through the streets of Wellington on a cryptic treasure hunt gathering clues. On their journey they discover a body. Coming together at The Old Bailey (what an apt name for such a foul deed to be investigated) they will enjoy entrees whilst putting their heads together to decipher the clues assisted by the Murder suspects.

Realising they need more clues and not able to trust their colleagues, the amateur detectives head to St Johns for dinner and dessert where they are able to put all the pieces of the puzzle together, solve the anagram and unmask the Murderer.

The Hospitality Industry are pleased they are able to help keep Wellington's streets safer.
